SPEAKERS CORNER

Fighting poverty through education

Gemma Sisia, Australian best-selling author, recipient of the Order of Australia medal and founder of The School of St Jude will be guest presenter at an upcoming club breakfast event on Thursday 26 March.

Gemma will share her remarkable story, as a young teacher from rural Australia that founded of one of Tanzania's most successful charity schools. She will also provide Club members with an update on the future of St Jude students as the first senior class prepares to graduate in 2015.

The School of St Jude provides a free high-quality education to more than 1,900 disadvantaged children, funded solely by donations including support from the Brisbane High-Rise Rotary Club.

Eddie's Epilogue

I made daddy proud this week when I climbed up on the kitchen table, turned the sound system on to Iron Maiden (a band) and danced for 3 songs until mum turned it off.
