ANGELA'S ANGLE

Hi everyone, it has been good to see a few glimpses of sun over the past few days. I have got so desperate for hot sunny weather that I have decided to go to Melbourne for most of the week!!! Jennifer Eathorne has volunteered to be President for the meeting in return for chocolate. Sounds like an excellent deal to me – Wendy Protheroe please take note for next year!!! I am available to stand in at any time for the right price. Thanks Jennifer for helping out this week.

It is great that we now have two Wendy's – once again welcome Wendy Randolph to the ranks of Rotary. I am sure you will have a lot of fun on the fellowship committee with Barbara. If anyone can lead you astray, it is her!!!

Rotary Art Show is getting very close, only 4 weeks to go, to the opening cocktail function. Don't forget to buy your tickets on line at rotaryartspectacular.com.au they are selling out fast. Margo also has the roster for security duties and opening night so if you can help out please make sure you let her know. This is our major fundraising event for the year so please put every effort into it so we have money to spend on other charities of our choice.

Have a great week and I look forward to hearing all about the Club meeting at the Board meeting on Monday night 18 March. See you next week.

ROTARY GRACE

O Lord and giver of all good, we thank you for our daily food. May Rotary friends and Rotary ways help us to serve you all our days.

Sharing your skills

The Rotary Foundation's new grant model provides various ways for Rotarians to use their skills to help others. Enhancement Process pilot is providing expertise for projects in water and sanitation.

Sustainable projects

Sustainability can make the difference between a project that fails after a year or two, and one that keeps providing benefits to the local community long after the last grant dollar is spent.

World Rotaract Week

In the two decades since the first Rotary club was chartered in Ukraine, 24 Rotaract clubs have been established, energizing young people to serve their communities. Learn more about their efforts and how you can observe World Rotaract Week.
