ANGELA'S ANGLE

I love Mother's Day not because of the sleep in and wonderful breakfast in bed but because of the memorable gifts that money just can't buy. It is that special poem or card that has been painstakingly and lovingly made which beats the flowers and jewellery hands down every time, although they were also very nice. I hope everyone enjoyed the day as much as I did.

Well Budget week has finally arrived. We had heard so much about it that I thought it was over weeks ago. I felt when I watched the Treasurer deliver the budget that it was almost like watching a household work out a budget when you knew the divorce was about to be announced. Not sure how relevant it all was when chances of it happening are getting slimmer by the day. We live in very interesting political times and only 121 days to the election, but who's counting!!! I am sure Clive Palmer has it all under control, just like the captain of the Titanic!

The good thing about the election is that it is in the Spring and the weather will be getting warmer. These cold early mornings are a sign of winter is well and truly on the way. Oh how I hate winter. Only 107 days to go before Spring, but who is counting!!

Don't forget to get involved with Red Shield – Ron Mullins is working hard to ensure the rosters are full on Saturday 25 and Sunday 26 June. If you can help out make sure you contact him.
