ANGELA'S ANGLE

Hi Everyone

What a great action packed meeting we had last week. It reminded me, yet again, of the importance and power of acknowledging people in our lives who do a good job every day. We hear so much doom and gloom re economic outlooks and global news stories that drains our energy. It was so much fun being part of a positive activity.

Thank you to Rosemary and Gary for organising such a successful breakfast. I know there was a lot of work behind the scenes. Thank you to all the people who found nominees and went to the trouble of applying on their behalf. All were very worthy nominees. The nominees came from many different areas and all really appreciated the recognition. It was great to see them involving their families in their success. It certainly spread the word about Rotary and dispelled a few pre conceptions regarding the formality of Rotary meetings.

I am sure our meeting put a smile on everyone's face for the day, I know it did on mine. Keep on the lookout for nominees for next year and in the meantime notice and thank those around you for doing a good job and see the energy and smiles grow.
