WENDY'S WISDOM

I remember Mr Baynes, my grade 6 teacher. I know that when he asked me to learn, to practice, to question and to help others I did – I did because I trusted him, he inspired me and he made me laugh. I remember Miss Gallagher, one of my dancing teachers. Miss Gallagher always stood straight, tapped her cane on the floor (or on our calves) and expected we would always give performances from our inner self. Miss Gallagher had already achieved the standards I'd set for myself – she was a role model. I remember Bob Marshman, a Director General who mentored me. He taught me that to achieve the best from staff I had to know my business and role well and understand that there's no one way for a goal to be reached – always to value what others bring to the table. And my final recollection on the topic is Mrs P who owned the corner store next to Nanna's where we bought our lollies. Mrs P would always look into our eyes when she talked with us, have us count out our money and always shared the red jelly beans fairly.

What each one of these important people did was demonstrate over and over again the influence that can be had on the lives of others when we do our jobs well.

This week we're recognizing a special group of people who through their professional expertise, their communication skills, their organization, their strategic planning or their commitment to support others in our community have caught our attention.

Congratulations all!

The work we do (paid or as volunteers) every day sends a message. As Brisbane High Rise Rotarians let's model pride in workmanship as we live our commitment to service through not only what we do but also how we do it.

HIGH-RISE CHRISTMAS BASH

TWAS THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS..... (well, a couple of weeks actually)

Three weeks until Christmas no sign of a mouse,
With Rotarians stirring, there's fun in the House.
Wine bottles in hand and carried with care,
There's hope that the HighRisers soon will be there.

Children are home; pets in their beds,
Revelers have sugarplums that dance in their heads.
The taxis are here, its time to get started
There could be trouble ahead, hope no one gets carted.

The fare's cooking merrily all warm in the ovens,
With glitter gracing tables that are set for the dozens.
All eyes are a twinkle all cheeks are like cherry,
They've opened the wine and things are a merry.

Buzz Bistro Emporium is now all a clatter.
HighRise Rotarians have started to chatter,
Of the good they have done, it's made them all pleased,
At home in Australia and way overseas.

Their friendship, camaraderie, never ending support,
Our family of HighRisers now holding court
There's never an obstacle to challenge this gang
Get set for this bash to go off with a bang

With love in your hearts bring your joy and your whistle,
It's time for the party and you all know that this'll
Be a time to celebrate, rejoice and unite,
With a Happy Christmas to all, and to all a "Great Night".
