WENDY'S WISDOM

A couple of weeks ago I'd popped into IKEA for some Christmas presents. OMG!

If you haven't had this experience imagine Dorothy in the Wizard of Oz – you enter and follow the yellow brick – actually grey painted - road. You shuffle along with everyone else - slowly or quickly, but never alone.

Lesson 1: Relaxation and Christmas sales don't mix.

I wondered why displays I passed were messed up with other stuff dumped on them. Sandwiched between two families I felt that I had been plonked in the middle of a family day out.

Lesson 2: Take care when you join in the conversations of others (I've already shared the Marco Polo story).

Shuffling along I was surprised to find myself in the midst of a packed old style cafeteria.

Lesson 3: Even for a coffee addict the allure of the drug can't make mass eating worthwhile.

On I struggled and made my first selection. A large packet of red serviettes. Why!

Lesson 4: Having four years of Christmas serviettes on hand is not good housekeeping.

Next it was white coat hangers – just when I'd decided to downsize my wardrobe. Why!

Suddenly I was at the exit and I hadn't chosen any gifts. Why hadn't I picked up possibles and dropped them off on random displays when I found something better. If for one moment you thought that walking the line is easy let me assure you that the minute you turn and try walking against the tide you really experience the power of the shopper.

Lesson 5: Best place to practice perseverance - against the line in IKEA.

I saw a break in the wall and pushed the trolley through.

Lesson 6: Be sure of directions before you jump at a shortcut or you just might find yourself back where you started.

I'm not going to say whether I gave up but I might be giving multi-purpose gifts this Christmas. Plastic pegs can be used to keep clothes on a line, seal packs of frozen peas or hold up the paintings of budding stars – and that's for starters. There's still a month for more brilliant ideas to pop up.

HIGH-RISE CHRISTMAS BASH

TWAS THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS..... (well, a couple of weeks actually)

Three weeks until Christmas no sign of a mouse,
With Rotarians stirring, there's fun in the House.
Wine bottles in hand and carried with care,
There's hope that the HighRisers soon will be there.

Children are home, pets in their beds,
Revelers have sugarplums that dance in their heads.
The taxis are here, it's time to get started
There could be trouble ahead, hope no one gets carted.

The fare's cooking merrily all warm in the ovens,
With glitter gracing tables that are set for the dozens.
All eyes are a twinkle all cheeks are like cherry,
They've opened the wine and things are a merry.

Buzz Bistro Emporium is now all a clatter.
HighRise Rotarians have started to chatter,
Of the good they have done, it's made them all pleased,
At home in Australia and way overseas.

Their friendship, camaraderie, never ending support,
Our family of HighRisers now holding court
There's never an obstacle to challenge this gang
Get set for this bash to go off with a bang

With love in your hearts bring your joy and your whistle,
It's time for the party and you all know that this'll
Be a time to celebrate, rejoice and unite,
With a Happy Christmas to all, and to all a "Great Night".
